

Employment Opportunity

ARHME has received a request from The Richdale Group, an apartment property management company, asking if any retirees might be interested in a part-time position with the company. We are in no way endorsing, nor have we verified the authenticity of or are in any way responsible for this advertisement for employment. We are posting this ad only as a service to retirees who may want to contact The Richdale Group and make their own judgments about the company/position. This is the first such posting of this type of material to our web site and we would appreciate feedback from anyone contacting the Richdale Group to discuss the job.

The Richdale Apartments has an immediate opening for a friendly and dependable individual to work as a Runner/Cable Auditor for our luxury apartment communities in Houston. This part-time position will work approximately 20-25 hours per week. Ideal hours would be 9am to 2pm M-F, however we are flexible with those times and/or days.

Responsibilities include delivering documents and supplies between our apartment communities, visually verifying that residents are receiving correct cable services via cable utility panels, verifying garage occupancy and other duties as assigned.

Qualified candidates will be honest, responsible, self-directed, have a clean driving record, and possess a vehicle that is both reliable and able to transport larger items (truck or SUV is preferred). Must be able to lift a minimum of 25 pounds and have the ability climb a ladder repeatedly.

The Richdale Group is a property management company, based out of Omaha, NE. We have presence in 10 states and we are looking for someone who might be interested in working about 20-25 hrs/wk as a Runner/Garage Auditor for our properties in the Galleria area. The position pays $10/hr plus mileage reimbursement. Please let me know if you need additional information.
